Four Sentenced For Their Roles in Kidnap of Woman Found in Rowland Heights

Two men and two women have been sentenced for their roles in the kidnapping of a woman who was found two days later in a Rowland Heights garage, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Francisco Inacua-Rosas, 35, Uziel Cuevas Figueroa and Rocio Inacua, both 33, each pleaded no contest to one count of kidnapping late yesterday and Judith Maldonado, 41, pleaded no contest to one count of accessory after the fact.

Inacua-Rosas was immediately sentenced to 31 years in state prison, while both Figueroa and Inacua each received 18-year prison terms. Maldonado was sentenced to three years in state prison to be served in local custody.

Deputy District Attorney Louis Avila of the Organized Crime Division said the victim was kidnapped on Aug. 4 in Diamond Bar by Inacua-Rosas, Figueroa and Inacua.

Inacua then called the victim's family and demanded about $100,000. The woman was found two days later in a garage with her mouth covered by duct tape. The defendants never received the ransom.

Case BA428055 was investigated by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department.
